I conducted my audit in accordance with the standards of the PCAOB. Those standards require that I plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement, whether due to error or fraud. NOTE 1: ORGANIZATION AND SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

A summary of the Firm's significant accounting policies consistently applied in the preparation of the accompanying financial statements are as follows:

- a. Nature of Operations—Cornerstone Financial Services, Inc., (the Firm), is a registered broker-dealer with the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority (FINRA), the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC and various states within the United States. The Firm operates under the exemptive provision of the SEC Rule 15c3-3(k)(1).
- b. Cash Equivalents—For purposes of the statements of cash flows, the Firm considers all highly liquid debt instruments with maturities of three months or less when purchased to be cash equivalents. There were no cash equivalents at December 31, 2019.
- c. Use of Estimates—The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities, the disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements, and the reported amounts of revenue and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.
- d. Concentrations of Credit Risk—The Firm places its cash in accounts with a local financial institution. At times, such accounts may be in excess of FDIC insured limits. The Firm did not have amounts in excess of insured limits as of December 31, 2019.
- e. Commissions Receivable—Commissions Receivable consists of commissions, fees and other amounts owed to the Firm. The Firm, on a periodic basis evaluates its commissions receivable and establishes an allowance for doubtful accounts, based on history of past write-offs and collections and current credit conditions. The Firm considers commissions receivable to be fully collectible; accordingly, no allowance for doubtful accounts currently is provided. Uncollectible commissions receivable are charged directly against operations when they are determined to be uncollectible. Use of this method does not result in a material difference from the valuation method required by accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.
- f. Advertising—The Firm's advertising costs are expensed as incurred. During 2019, advertising costs of $4,725 were incurred.
- g. Method of Accounting—The Firm's financial statements are presented on the accrual basis method of accounting.
- h. Revenue Recognition—The Firm recognizes revenue on its variable annuity and mutual funds products when the necessary policy documents have been completed by the customer as well as the premiums associated with the related products have been received by the carrier.

In May 2014, FASB issued ASU 2014-19, "Revenue from Contracts with Customers Topic 606" which supersedes nearly all existing revenue recognition guidance under generally accepted accounting principles. The Firm's revenue recognition policy conforms with the pronouncement by recognizing revenue in accordance with the five components of the pronouncement:

- Identify the contract with the customer
- Identify the performance obligation
- Determine the transaction price
- Allocate the transaction price to the performance obligation
- Recognize the revenue when the performance obligation is met

REPORT OF INDEPENDENT REGISTERED PUBLIC ACCOUNTING FIRM

The Board of Directors and Stockholders of Cornerstone Financial Services, Inc.

I have reviewed management's statements, included in the accompanying Exemption report of Broker and Dealers, in which (1) Cornerstone Financial Services, Inc., identified the following provisions 17 C.F.R. § 15c3-3(k) under which the Firm claimed an exemption from 17 C.F.R. § 240.15c3-3: (k)(1), and (2) Cornerstone Financial Services, LLC stated that Cornerstone Financial Services, Inc. has met the exemption provisions above mentioned throughout the year ending December 31, 2019 and to the best of their knowledge and belief the above statements are true without exception. Cornerstone Financial Services, Inc.'s management is responsible for compliance with the exception provisions and its statements.

My review was conducted in accordance with the standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States) and accordingly included inquiries and other required procedures to obtain evidence about the Firm's compliance with the exemption provisions. A review is substantially less in scope than an examination, the objective of which is the expression of an opinion on management's statements. Accordingly, I do not express such an opinion.

Based on my review, I am not aware of any material modifications that should be made to management's statements referred to above for them to be fairly stated, in all material respects, based on the provisions set forth in paragraph (k)(1) of Rule 15c3-3 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934.
